 - research and development programs;
 - clinical trial and other R & D costs;
 - loss of key personnel; and
 - failure of the Company's technology/intellectual property;
- adequate policies and procedures have been designed and implemented to manage identified risks. This may involve undertaking the following options:
 - cease the activities because the risk is too large for the anticipated benefits;
 - transfer the risk to another party;
 - minimise the risk to the extent that it is appropriate; or
 - not alter the risk due to an acknowledgment that the risk cannot be efficiently reduced and it is appropriate for the Company to be subject to that risk;
- a regular program of audits is undertaken to test the adequacy of and compliance with prescribed policies; and
- proper remedial action is undertaken to redress areas of weakness.

The following are intended to form part of the normal procedures for the Committee's risk responsibility:

10. Relationship with the external auditor

The committee provides a link between the external auditor and the Board and has the responsibility and authority to recommend to the Board the appointment and removal of the external auditor and to review the terms of their engagement.

The committee requires that a person may not play a significant role in managing the audit for the external auditor (normally the lead and review auditor) for more than 5 out of any 7 successive years and that the external auditor:

- submit on a periodic basis to the committee, a formal written statement delineating all responsibilities and work completed by the auditor;
- consider whether the external auditor's provision of non-audit services to the company (if any) is compatible with maintaining the independence of the external auditor; and
- if applicable, recommend that the Board take appropriate action in response to the external auditor's report to satisfy itself of the external auditor's independence.

11. Reporting to the Board

It is intended that a report of the actions of the Committee and/or a copy of the minutes of the Committee meeting will be included in the Board papers for the Board meeting next following a meeting of the Committee. If a Committee meeting is held immediately prior to a Board meeting, the minutes to the Committee meeting will be included in the Board papers for the Board meeting subsequent to the immediate Board meeting.

Where the composition of the Committee comprises less than the full board, the Chair will, if requested, provide a brief oral report as to any material matters arising out of the Committee meeting. All directors may, within the Board meeting, request information of members of the Committee.
